Legal Information

RCM Research publications are not for Retail Clients as defined by the FSA.

The information contained in research publications is obtained from various sources believed to be reliable, but has not been independently verified by RCM or its affiliate(s). RCM or its affiliate(s) do not warrant the completeness or accuracy of such information and do not accept any liability with respect to the accuracy or completeness of such information, except to the extent required by applicable law.

Research publications are for information purposes only and shall not be construed as an offer or solicitation for the subscription or purchase or sale of any securities, or as an invitation, inducement or intermediation for the sale, subscription or purchase of any securities, or for engaging in any other transaction. Any opinions, projections, forecasts or estimates in research reports are those of the author only. They reflect only the current views of the author at the time of the report and are subject to change without notice. RCM or its affiliate(s)* have no obligation to update, modify or amend any publication or to otherwise notify a reader or recipient of a publication in the event that any matter, opinion, projection, forecast or estimate contained herein, changes or subsequently becomes inaccurate, or if research on the subject company is withdrawn. The analysis, opinions, projections, forecasts and estimates expressed in research reports are in no way affected or influenced by the issuer. The authors of research publications benefit financially from the overall success of RCM or its affiliate(s)*.

The investments referred to in research publications may not be suitable for all recipients. Recipients are urged to base their investment decisions upon their own appropriate investigations as they deem necessary. Any loss or other consequence arising from the use of the material contained in a research publication shall be the sole and exclusive responsibility of the investor and RCM or its affiliate(s)* accept no liability for any such loss or consequence. In the event of any doubt about any investment, recipients should contact their own investment, legal and/or tax advisers to seek advice regarding the appropriateness of investing. Some of the investments mentioned in research publications may not be readily liquid investments. Consequently it may be difficult to sell or realize such investments. The past is not necessarily a guide to future performance of an investment. The value of investments and the income derived from them may fall as well as rise and investors may not get back the amount invested. Some investments discussed in research publications may have a high level of volatility. High volatility investments may experience sudden and large falls in their value which may cause losses. International investing includes risks related to political and economic uncertainties of foreign countries, as well as currency risk.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, no liability whatsoever is accepted for any direct or consequential loss, damages, costs or prejudices whatsoever arising from the use of research publications or their contents.

Religare and its affiliates have written procedures designed to identify and manage potential conflicts of interest that arise in connection with its research business. The Group's research analysts and other staff involved in issuing and disseminating research reports operate independently of the Group's Investment Banking business. Chinese Wall procedures are in place between the research analysts and staff involved in securities trading for the account of RCM Group companies or clients to ensure that price sensitive information is handled according to applicable laws and regulations.
